

AVAILABLE POSITION

St Stithians College is a proudly South African school, embracing diversity and offering a distinctive educational experience. Founded as a Methodist Church School, our Christian spirituality is central to our identity. Our College consists of primary and secondary boys' and girls' schools, together with a co-educational junior primary school. We are an independent, non-profit institution located on an expansive green campus in Sandton, Johannesburg. In addition, St Stithians incorporates Kamoka Bush School near Modimolle, and the Thandulwazi Maths & Science Academy on our Campus. As a College we are intent on Inspiring Excellence. Making a World of Difference.

The College invites applications for the following locum position which will be available from January – April 2016.

GIRLS' COLLEGE LOCUM HISTORY TEACHER

Applications are invited from suitably qualified and experienced individuals who believe they have the required skills and competencies to take on this position.

The requirements of the position:

- A proven academic record and appropriate experience with a relevant degree
- A sound knowledge and capability of delivering both the FET and GET curriculum for History
- Previous experience in an IEB school would be a distinct advantage
- The ability to use and develop various electronic media for teaching and learning
- A fundamentally future-orientated approach to teaching and learning
- A passion for teaching and for the young people whose learning you would be expected to inspire
- An unequivocal commitment to working as part of an accomplished team of enthusiastic educators and to develop exciting and creative material
- A suitable professional qualification and appropriate educational experience.
- A sound and progressive understanding of the South African curriculum and international trends in education.
- Proof of registration with SACE and sexual offender's clearance certificate. Any staff working within a school are required to have a sexual offender's clearance certificate.
- A willingness to work within the values, Christian ethos and mission of the College as well as participation in the broader life of the school.
