Creating hope from hurt

YOU ARE INVITED

Join us for an exciting and informative fundraiser over drinks and canapés with speakers:

Adrian Gardiner, founder of Shamwari Game Reserve AND Dr Johan Marais, founder of Saving the Survivors.

There will be a raffle draw with great prizes.

SAVING THE SURVIVORS

An organisation that rescues and recuperates injured wildlife that have fallen victim to poaching or traumatic incidents.

Most of their efforts are directed towards rhino due to the vicious attacks that many of them have fallen victim to. Fortunately many poached victims have a second chance.

10% of funds raised on the night will go to the Thandulwazi Education Trust.

Date: Thursday, 23rd November 2017
Time: 6pm – 9pm
Venue: GLT (Girls' Lecture Theatre), St Stithians Girls' Preparatory
Cost: R300 per person, including a free entry into a lucky draw
RSVP: ProjectGroupGirls@gmail.com to reserve your seats
