

Stanford Lake College >>

College adds to its wealth of proficiency

Stanford Lake College welcomed a number of new members to its staff complement at the start of the academic year. Jandr  Fullard is an intern in the Outdoor Centre, teaching outdoor activities and specialising in golf. Khomotso Hlungwane joins the college from St Stithian's where she completed her internship. She will be teaching Life Science classes.

Becca Tooley is the new Visual Arts educator. A local ex-Stanford pupil holding a degree in Fine Arts and having specialised in Art Education she will be teaching the senior art students.

Tanya Prinsloo is an intern working in the High Performance Centre, specialising in training fitness programmes. Izak Volgraaf has taught for 16 years and will take senior Life Orientation, his specialty, and junior Afrikaans. He is also the Housemaster for seniors in Founders House.

Tanya Prinsloo, Becca Tooley, Izak Volgraaff, Jandr  Fullard and Khomotso Hlungwane have joined the staff of Stanford Lake College.

PHOTOS: SUPPLIED